Joe,

I missed your email late yesterday and I'm out of the office until about 10:30 this morning. I will take a look at it when I get back in the office.

Jean,

That actually works I am able to save it to pdf just the same! However, I wonder if you were able to send a separate email to the same recipient for the other Government defendants or just Brendan Carr? If so, the same file type for each Defendant email would be very helpful!

Best regards,

Joe

Joe,

This is what I sent you before. Will it be sufficient?

Hi Jean,

Thanks for confirming this soo quickly. Could you possibly save the email thread attempt and send it over when you have a free minute? I find the best way to save emails is usually ctrl+P > save as pdf. I didn't expect to require this but opposing Counsel is taking a peculiar position that the attempt may help in responding to.

Hope you have a wonderful rest of the day,

Sincerely,

Joseph Kirchner

Joe,

Sorry to hear you have strep throat. Not Fun.

I already emailed the documents to all five people on Tuesday of this week, so I can do affidavits for those. I still need to figure out how to send you the sent notices though. I may have to do them a different way than what I originally thought.

Hope you feel better soon.

Hi Jean,

Thanks for getting back to me and I too apologize for the delay. My nephew kindly gave me strep throat last weekend and I've been bedridden all week. Unfortunately, I don't think I'll be leaving my house for a while as I just started antibiotics today. Because of this, I asked my friend pick up all the documents and mail them yesterday. I haven't had him email the documents yet. Could I provide you proof of delivery docs for the emails alone for you to sign off on? I'll send you $60 for your time of course (or whatever you deem appropriate). I apologize for any waste of time here. I wanted to get it out but I didn't want to meet you while I was sick and contagious.
